

Hing Chi Jimmy Chan

November 5, 2008

Contact Information:

Office: 515 Economics Building, Shanghai University of Finance and Economics
111, Wu Chuan Road, Shanghai, 200433

Tel: +86-21-65903444

Fax: +86-21-65903688

Email: jimmy.hing.chan@gmail.com

Employment:

Associate Professor, Shanghai School of Finance and Economics, 2005-present

Visiting Associate Professor, Johns Hopkins University, Spring 2008

Assistant Professor, Johns Hopkins University, 1998-2005

Visiting Assistant Professor, Hong Kong Institute of Economics and Business Strategy, University of Hong Kong, January, May, and June, 2004

Education:

Ph.D. in Economics, University of California, Berkeley, 1998

B.S. in Industrial Engineering, University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, 1989

Research and Teaching Fields:

Microeconomics, game theory, political economics

Teaching Experience:

Shanghai School of Economics and Finance:

Graduate Level: Advanced Microeconomics

Johns Hopkins University:

Undergraduate Level: Intermediate Microeconomics, Political Economy

Graduate Level: Game Theory, Behavioral Economics, Political Economy

Published Articles:

Does Banning Affirmative Action Lower Student Quality? with Erik Eyster, American Economic Review, June, 2003

A Spatial Theory of Electoral and Media Competition, with Wing Suen, Review of Economic Studies, July, 2008

The Distributional Consequences of Diversity-Enhancing University Admissions Rules, with Erik Eyster, Journal of Law, Economics and Organization, forthcoming 2009.

Working Papers:

Media as Watchdogs: The Role of News Media in the Electoral Competition, with Wing Suen, European Economic Review, fifth round.

On the Non-Existence of Reputation Effects in Two-Person Infinitely Repeated Games, last version: 2000.

Electoral Competition with Private Information, last version: 2001.

Work In Progress:

Competition Between State-Owned Enterprises: Evidence from the Chinese Airline Industry, with Ruli Xiao and Hong Zhang, current version: 2008.

Optimal Efficiency-Wage Contracts with Subjective Evaluations, with Bingyong Zheng, current version: 2008

Conference and Seminar Presentations:

1998-1999: Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, Stony Brook Summer Game Theory Conference, Southeast Economic Theory Conference.
1999-2000: Econometric Society Winter Meeting, Georgetown University, Econometric Society World Congress.
2000-2001: Cornell University, University of Southampton, University of Hong Kong.
2001-2002: Annual Conference of Wallis Institute of Political Economy, University of Pennsylvania, New York University.
2002-2003: Duke University, Northwestern University, University of Toronto, Macarthur Network on Social Interactions and Economic Outcomes, Canadian Economic Theory Conference, Econometric Society Summer Meetings.
2003-2004: Public Choice Society Meeting, European Economic Theory Conference, Econometric Society Winter Meeting.
2004-2005: University of California, San Diego.
2005-2006: Econometric Society Winter Meeting, Journal of Public Economic Theory Annual Meeting.
2006-2007: Zhejiang University, Fudan University, Guanghua Management School
2007-2008: CCER, Beijing University

Grants:

2007-2009: Shanghai Shuguang Grants
Title: An Empirical Study of the Chinese Airline Industry

Referee:

American Economic Review, Journal of Public Economic Theory, Chinese Economic Review, Economic Enquiry, Journal Policy Analysis and Management